Trinity Sunday

8am Holy Communion
10am Parish Communion
6.30pm No Evensong this month

Churchwardens

The meeting to elect new Churchwardens will take place on Sunday 17th July at about 11.15am immediately after the morning service.

Whether or not new wardens are elected Alastair Heslop and Mary Trevill will cease to be Churchwardens by the end of July.

We now have one volunteer churchwarden and one volunteer deputy.

We need one more of each - very urgently.

Please discuss ways in which you might help our Church

Messy Church

Messy Church would like help from the congregation for our activities in July. Please could we have donations of small glass jars with lids, the insides of kitchen rolls, and pictures of flowers, birds, and animals to cut out and use on a collage.

Autumn Plans

Ripples
of Faith

The new Christian Basics course will be starting in the Autumn. Please look out for details of a social event to launch the course to which past, present and future Rippers will be very welcome. The course can serve as refreshment for experienced Church members or basic training for new members. More information will be announced about this through the Summer but please feel free to speak to the Vicar if you would like to know more.

Thanks for Prayer

Richard Amis has not been well for some time and would like to thank all those who have supported him through their prayers. Your continuing prayer will be much appreciated. Please also continue to hold in your prayers all who belong to our community who are facing poor health at present and especially those to whom communion will be ministered during the coming week.

A proposed list of PCC committee members has been circulated by email and we hope the committees will meet to plan the coming months in the near future.
