

17th June 2018

3rd Sunday after Trinity

---

8am Communion Services

There will be no 8am Communion Services on 24th June and 1st July

Church Closed

The Church will not be open to visitors during the week for the next 3 weeks as the contractors will be working in the Church replacing the wiring and lighting. The Church will therefore be closed during the week for the four week contract period and Keyholders should not go in during the week as it will not necessarily be safe and there may be no power available. The Church will be safe for cleaning, flower arranging etc on Saturdays during this period and Sunday services will take place as normal.

Mary Magdalen's Day 22nd July

As is our tradition we will hold a barbecue after the 10am service to celebrate our patronal festival with fun and sausages (and puddings!).

I am pleased that a number of people have said that they intend to join the party so I hope others will be able to do so too.

It is not essential that you let us know you are coming as we ask you to bring your own meat but it helps with planning if we have an indication so please let me know (in person or by email) if you will be with us.

Today's Services

8am Holy Communion

No Service

10am: Worship for All Communion

Please join us in the Church Room; we use the "Praying Together" service leaflet.

We welcome children of all ages

Feel free to keep them with you in the service and we will aim to keep them entertained. Ask a sidesman for a bag of toys if you like.

If you are unable to come up for communion please speak to the sidesmen who will arrange for communion to be brought to you in your place.

Gluten-free Communion bread is available; if you are on a gluten-free or wheat-free diet please speak to one of the sidesmen before the service starts or else during the collection.

Men's Breakfast Saturday 7th July at 8.30am

What is "The Church"?

- It is not a building though we treasure the one we are given to use. The building helps us to be The Church but it is not the building in which we say we believe when we say a Creed together.
- It is not an organisation or denomination – C of E, Diocese, PCC or whatever. These organisations are intended to help us to be The Church but the organisations are not what we say we believe in when we say a Creed together.

The Church is people united by faith across boundaries of distance, tradition, and the boundary of death and resurrection. When we say a Creed together – when we say we believe in the Church – we are celebrating the fact that we have a unity and a power as the Body of Christ held together and strengthening through faith and trust in Jesus and through the nourishment of the Holy Spirit.

No building can contain the glory of the Church when we understand it this way and no organisation, denomination or Diocese can prevail against us.
